

Macon East Academy Yearbook

Macon East Families and Friends,

Please consider purchasing an ad in our 2020 yearbook! Your advertising dollars help Macon East Academy build a better yearbook for all the students at our school. The Macon East Academy yearbook staff is excited about this year's Lance and Shield; it is bursting with photos, student portraits, activities, highlights, and space for special autographs. We're sure that your student will treasure their yearbook and look back on these special memories!

Business Ads:

Business owners in our community have several effective ways to advertise. I would like to introduce you to one you may not have considered — the Macon East Academy yearbook. By advertising in the yearbook, you can reach more than 300 families with your business' name, location and message. A business ad with our yearbook is a great tax deduction for your business. Our ads are formatted to meet the budget of any business, no matter the size.

Personal Ads:

Celebrate your student's year! If you want to recognize your student for their accomplishments throughout the school year, purchasing a personalized yearbook ad is the right choice!
